THE GIRL WHO FORGOT
TO SING BADLY
BY FINEGAN KRUCKEMEYER

Dec. 9th-20th, 2024

60-min assembly including talkback
Recommended for grades K-5

USA PREMIERE!

Sometimes it takes a girl-sized human to solve an adult-sized problem... Peggy O'Hegarty and her parents are packers. They squeeze fruit into tins, foxes into boxes, even bikes into brown paper bags. And then one day, work stops working, and the jobs stop jobbing and Peggy steps outside to find that winter has arrived...and everyone in her city has vanished!

Get ready for a story literally packed full of fun and suspense. As Peggy desperately tries to save the day, we learn about love, loss, the reassurance of goats and that we should all have the courage to sing gloriously on or off-key!

Themes: Creative Storytelling, Courage, Self-Confidence

Harriet
Tubman
AN AMERICAN MOSES
BY GAY MONTEVERDE

February 3rd-21st, 2025

60-min assembly including talkback
Recommended for grades 3-8

When a storyteller summons Harriet Tubman from the past, one of America's greatest heroines offers to divulge the details of her extraordinary life. As the storyteller portrays the diverse characters from her past, from Frederick Douglas to plantation owners, Harriet relives her humble beginnings with her family through the end of the Civil War. Though widely known for her unimaginable feats of courage, this play also explores the finer details of Harriet's life, evoking her more nuanced messages of hope and faith in other people. BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

Themes: American Civil War, American History, Black History, Hope, Perseverance

Field Trip Option @ LCCC April 3rd @9:45am

The prince has the shoe. He's ready to wed. But who's the woman behind the foot? Two investigative reporters compete for the scoop of the century, interviewing everybody from a fairy godmother in desperate need of a day-planner to mice in the witness protection program. Look for cameos from other celebrities in this story about what it means to find—and TELL—the truth.

Themes: Fables, Fairy Tales, Adaptation, Critical Thinking
